

The Indiana law has made my life at home easier. This was one of the very few ways in which the government actually had a direct impact on my lifestyle. There are enough ways a business can get my attention without being intrusive. Please do not limit the current law in Indiana.